

Thin as a Card

"The D.A.'s got to build a case. Building a case is like building a house. Each piece of evidence is just another building block. He wants to make a brick bunker of a building. He wants to use serious, solid-looking bricks..

He's going to show you the bricks. He'll show you they got straight sides. He'll show you how they got the right shape. He'll show them to you in a very special way, so that they appear to have everything a brick should have. But there's one thing he's not gonna show you.

When you look at the bricks from the right angle, they're as thin as this playing card. His whole case is an illusion, a magic trick. It has to be an illusion, 'cause you're innocent"

- Vincent Laguardia Gambini, My Cousin Vinny

I had a psychic reading done a few years back. I was told in this reading that something entering my life would enable me to walk through walls. It was a thrilling proposition as I had recently acquired a newborn puppy.

Walls

2015 : You have a burning vision of the world. You construct familiar walls to display this vision . You are not educated. that's good, probably. The idea is Art : having said a great many things nothing else could possibly say - what is it/ what is it / heywhat is it / .waht is/ ich t t. w/whichich... is ¿

*"Ah why did I not pay attention when they were building the walls.
But I never heard any noise or sound of builders.
Imperceptibly they shut me from the outside world"*

- CP Cavafy

That sounds good put it on the website.

2025 : Things I learned about walls :

- everyone has walked through at least 1,, before they were even born
- thus, it is not advisable to go through a wall head first- walk normally through it
- it is not advisable to walk through two walls simultaneously
- beware walls crumbling with you inside them
 - (some walls are not meant to be walked through at all)
- some of the walls you walk through turn out to be windows
- some of the windows are actually mirrors, which cannot be traversed
 - (you may, however, walk through a mirror in reverse)
- walls like borders + boundaries - share ultimate potential of permeability
- boundaries, unlike borders or walls, are rarely defined till they are crossed
- if you hesitate, or stop halfway, you will get stuck in the liminal-between
- there is gravitational pull toward certain walls, becoming impossible to ignore
 - (perhaps especially difficult walls)

Things overheard upon walking through walls :

- "I hear music beyond that wall"
- "Funny you bring that up ~the strangest thing occurred earlier"
- "Oh spin this sad affair into something humorous"
- "What's fear of death got to do with it?"
- "What's love got to do with it?"
- "Fear shame + regret got to do with it?"
- "See that wall there - no more regime change"
- "Who can say which side of the cut will matter at any given moment.."
- "Just now thinking of you"

So, are you psychic? Many don't know this but there is an enormous wall sitting in the direct center of the internet. Walls :: Portals. Illusionary walls? I walked thru a wall so _____ doesn't have to. Where does that come from? — don't worry about it. Too much worry makes it all dark shadows.. unaliving action thoughtful growth , free open creativity + | - and.... virtue. Virtue.

Entering Mansion Territory

"If the soul receives favours and caresses from our Lord, let it examine carefully whether it rates itself more highly in consequence; unless self-abasement increases with God's expressions of love, they do not come from the Holy Spirit. Inevitably, when they are divine, the greater the favours, the less the soul esteems itself and the more keenly it remembers its sins"
